*This, this is Christ the King,
Whom shepherds guard and Angels sing
Haste, haste, to bring Him laud,
The Babe, the Son of Mary.*

The original second half of this stanza, not found in the hymnal, provides a more complete response to the question, what child is this:

*Nails and spear shall pierce him through;
The cross he bore for me, for you;
Hail, hail the Word made flesh,
The babe, the Son of Mary!*

- 1 What could be the affect, to understanding Advent, or the Gospel in removing the last stanza?
- 2 How do the following provide an even more complete response to the question what child is this?
- 3 List everything you can find that also answers the question what child is this?
 - John 1:1-18
 - Luke 2:34-35
 - Philippians 2:6-11
- 4 If Philippians 2:5 were added to the final passage above, how does this shape a more complete answer to the question what child is this?
- 5 What additional Scriptures references answer the question more fully?
