The full lyrics of O Holy Night include a lesser known second verse:

1 Led by the light of faith serenely beaming, With glowing hearts by His cradle we stand.

- Contrast this verse with Hebrews 1:1-3. What can we discover?

2 So led by light of a star so sweetly gleaming, Here come the wise men from Orient land.

- How are the wise men/Magi (Matthew 2:1-12) important to what we can the Christmas story?

3 The King of kings lay thus lowly manger;

- This is true: Revelation 19:16 • So is this: Philippians 2:3-5
- How do we, how can we, respond?

4 In all our trials born to be our friend.

*He knows our need, our weakness is no stranger, Behold your King! Before him lowly bend!
Behold your King! Before him lowly bend!*

- Does Philippians 4:19? How can we overuse, or under use, what Paul says in verse 19?
- Hebrews 4:15 is deep... what all can we learn of Jesus from what the writer of Hebrews says here?
- Why is Great High Priest significant?
- What is the difference between potential sympathy, of an earthly High Priest, and identification with the Great High Priest?
- What does without sin mean? What does it NOT mean?
