Temptation to sin

Denial from sin

Repentance of sin

Healing over sin

① What can each of these look like when it is not actually happening (but is intended to look like it is)?

② What is resisting, denying, repenting or healing, for real? Give three examples.

③ Christians deal with each of these personally, and intimately. Do Christians need to address these things corporately? What does that look like?
