1 What do these two passages reveal about the life we are to live in Christ?

• James says it this way: (4:13-15) <sup>13</sup> Now listen, you who say, “Today or tomorrow we will go to this or that city, spend a year there, carry on business and make money.” <sup>14</sup> Why, you do not even know what will happen tomorrow. What is your life? You are a mist that appears for a little while and then vanishes. <sup>15</sup> Instead, you ought to say, “If it is the Lord’s will, we will live and do this or that.”

• Paul is far more dramatic: 1 Corinthians 7:29-31 <sup>29</sup> What I mean, brothers, is that the time is short. From now on those who have wives should live as if they had none; <sup>30</sup> those who mourn, as if they did not; those who are happy, as if they were not; those who buy something, as if it were not theirs to keep; <sup>31</sup> those who use the things of the world, as if not engrossed in them. For this world in its present form is passing away.

2 Discuss how this urgency speaks at our ‘every-day’ lives.

3 How do each of the passages below, then, reflect on our life as the church?

4 How do each of the passages below, then, inform and demand, if we are genuine disciples of Jesus?

• 2 CORINTHIANS 5:7 We live by faith, not by sight.

• 1 PETER 1:8 Though you have not seen him, you love him; and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him and are filled with an inexpressible and glorious joy,

• 2 CORINTHIANS 4:18 So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen. For what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal.

• HEBREWS 10:23-25 <sup>23</sup> Let us hold unwaveringly to the hope we profess, for he who promised is faithful. <sup>24</sup> And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds. <sup>25</sup> Let us not give up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but let us encourage one another--and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

• HEBREWS 10:38 But my righteous one will live by faith. And if he shrinks back, I will not be pleased with him.”
