① → Luke 2:41-42

Passover was the most important of the annual festivals. What regular remembrances, or habits, do you invest in and/or commit to before the Lord?

What is the difference between these habits or commitments and “going to church” or even regularly attending a worship service?

② → Luke 2:43-44

What does it mean to think and act from ① Christ to → ② Church to → ③ Culture?

What differences would be seen from thinking or acting from ① Culture to → ② Church?

③ → Luke 2:45-47

Terry briefly mentioned that the church should be better at asking questions. What did he mean? Why is asking good questions, followed by listening to answers, good? Why should we listen to others when we have the right answers (in Scripture)?

④ → Luke 2:48-50

What does it mean for us to be in the Father’s House, philosophically (or metaphorically) and experientially?

⑤ → Luke 2:51-52

How do we aspire to wisdom, “stature”, and favor with God and men? How do we keep on it even when there’s noise trying to distract us?
