① In Matthew 22:45, Jesus asks a question based in the Scriptures from Psalm 110. If the question is important, how is it important?

How does this question of Jesus compare to: Matthew 16:15, and Peter's answer in verse 16: "But what about you?" he asked. "Who do you say I am?"

② From Matthew 26:59-68, what things can we learn from how Jesus handled the situation?

③ Orthodox Christianity teaches that Jesus is both completely man, and completely God. Do you have a harder time envisioning Jesus as God, or Jesus as a man? Why?
