This (1-4) is a big question, and could take any amount of discussion time you have available...

→ Advent. That's a lot of waiting. Matthew 1:23 addresses the wait in a Word (reiterating Isaiah 7:14).

- ① → What are all the ways the message of these verses addresses the waiting expressed in the OT?
- ② → What are all the ways the message of these verses addresses the waiting expressed in the Gospel accounts, by the people alive at that time?
- ③ → What are all the ways the message of these verses addresses the waiting of the church, the waiting we're doing now?
- ④ → In regard to the last question, what are we — the church, now — actually waiting for?

⑤ → Do these verses add to hope, or have you already talked about these in the four questions above?

① Isaiah 53:12

② Romans 10:12-13

③ This, especially related to the restoration seen in Isaiah 11:4 "...with righteousness he will judge the needy,"

⑥ → Hope? Romans 15:8-13
