In the wake of more tragic events in our country, this time in San Bernardino, California, that took place this last week, Terry's mention that God is at work even when He is silent brings a particular kind of assurance, and a hope for peace. God often is silent, or seems silent. In His silence we really live out (sing) our faith.

① ✓ In our country,

✓ in our community,

✓ in our local congregation,

✓ in your family,

✓ in yourself

② how has this shaped the Big Picture in your view?

③ and, how have you gained Perspective that you otherwise wouldn't have?

④ and, what personal Purpose or mission has been created in you by God, and how is that being worked out through your life?
